At Blue Palm Villas we believe that Goa is the perfect holiday destination. We have explored Goa's rich history and heritage and brought it into our villas. We appreciate the juxtapositions that can be found in Goa; the 16th century history against vibrant neighbourhoods, the calm beaches against crowded shacks, the energetic parties against tranquil hideaways. Something which is fast gaining popularity, is the increasing number of spectacular private villas like ours which offer a very private and perfect alternative to other impersonal hotels.

Most importantly, our villas are in a calm and serene surrounding so one can enjoy a peaceful relaxed holiday and yet be at the beach or the main street within a few minutes.
